

President's Highlights

Hello Fellow Sewist,

I hope you enjoyed the Memorial Day weekend, which marks the beginning of summer. Summer here in Texas means to me 100 degrees plus days and lots of sewing since I've learned to stay in the air conditioning!

Carol Johnson, Joanne Jensen, Kathy Gross and myself just finished a four week Beginning Garment Sewing Class at the Lewisville Library in The Hive. This is their Maker's Space. There were 8 students of which 7 were women and one man, most of whom had not done much sewing, and definitely not garments. The library provides the sewing machines and all materials except the pattern. And surprisingly most finished the garment or were very close to finishing by the time class ended last night. Take a peak...

Jason Lewis is looking for a Master Tailor for Edward Baumann Clothier in Addison. His phone is 972-490-9797. If you know of anyone who fits that description, please contact him.

Karen Zupanic, executive Director of the Heard-Craig Museum in McKinney has received nearly 2000 fat quarters and yardages from a DAFA member. It is overwhelming and Karen would like to reach out to groups that use quilting fabrics for charity, kids sewing clubs (TAG), and additionally any interested individuals who would like to purchase fabrics at a very, very low cost. If interested, please contact me.

Here's a link to a Show that you might be interested in seeing or participating in at Round Rock Arts.
